The College of Education and Human Development is dedicated to preparing individuals to assume positions of responsibility and leadership in education. The College of Education and Human Development is committed to serving an ethnically diverse population that comprises the University's student base and seeks to work cooperatively with area organizations in promoting quality education at all levels. The College of Education and Human Development's goal is to prepare qualified personnel to meet the educational challenges of society with special emphasis on the needs of San Antonio and South Texas. Students are expected to meet the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators and those of their specialty area(s).

Admission to any graduate program requires a baccalaureate degree, adequate coursework in the field of interest, and a satisfactory score on the GRE Aptitude or MAT Test (if required by the program).
