

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR FINANCIAL AID

Students must accept the Financial Aid Terms and Conditions which authorizes A&M-San Antonio to apply all financial aid funds to the student's A&M-SA account with Student Business Services. Funds will be used to pay any current outstanding educational charges if needed. Thereafter, any excess proceeds will be released to the student. The student is responsible for officially notifying the appropriate offices, beginning with the Registrar's Office, if the student decides not to attend A&M-SA. The student also is responsible for repayment of all unearned funds that previously disbursed as a result of registering and not officially withdrawing within a semester.
