

MINOR IN PUBLIC HEALTH

To earn a minor in Public Health, students are advised to take BIOL 1306 (<https://catalog.tamusa.edu/search/?P=BIOL%201306>) Gen Biology I-Attr Living Sys to fulfill core requirements in the physical and life sciences in order to avoid hidden prerequisites and stay within 120 credit hours for degree plans. A minor in Public Health thus consists of 9 required credits from Public Health, and 9 credits from a list of eligible elective courses. See below for specific courses and course-requirements for a Public Health Minor.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses:
HLTH 2301	Foundations of Public Health	3
HLTH 3330	The Science of Health Disparities	3
HLTH 3345	Theories and Models of Health Behavior	3
Choose three of the following courses: 9 credits
HLTH 3320	Public Health Systems
HLTH 3325	Environmental Health
HLTH 3335	Data Management and Assessment
HLTH 4325	Global Health
HLTH 3390	Special Topics in Public Health
HLTH 4337	Disease Entities and Epidemiology
HLTH 4340	Health Policy and Advocacy
HLTH 4350	Emergency Management in Health
SOCI 4331	Demography & Population Problems
SOCI 4354	Sex, Sexuality, and Society or PSYC 3322 Gender Issues
SOCI 4372	Death and Dying	