

DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGE, LITERATURE, AND ARTS

Department Description

Language, Literature, and Arts is a multidisciplinary department comprising undergraduate programs in English and Spanish, a Master of Arts program in English, and a minor in Creative Arts and Performance Studies. This department administers the Writing, Language, and Digital Composing Center, the Writing Across the Curriculum Program, the First-Year Composition Program, and the Integrated Reading and Writing Program, and it contributes to the University's core curriculum, interdisciplinary minors, and teacher certification programs.

Commitments

The Department of Language, Literature, and Arts fosters students' critical engagement with and production of linguistic, visual, and musical works. Faculty facilitate this engagement through pedagogies that support interdisciplinary teaching and experiential learning to develop students' translingual and transcultural literacies. These pedagogies align with curricular and co-curricular programs that build reciprocal relationships with our community. These relationships prepare students to apply their knowledge in public and professional contexts to effect positive social change in and beyond South Texas. Through this work, we support students as they move forward into a range of rewarding careers, including those as educators responsive to our region.
